TIMES SCHOOL RANKING EAST 2026 POWERED BY FEMINA

Schools Shaping Tomorrow Take Centre Stage at Times School Ranking East 2026 Powered by FEMINA

On June 27, 2026, Kolkata became the centre of a meaningful conversation on education as the Times School Ranking East 2026 Powered by Femina brought together educators, school leaders, and changemakers at Hyatt Regency Kolkata. The evening celebrated institutions that are not only delivering strong academic outcomes but are also creating learning environments where children can grow with confidence, curiosity, and purpose.

The event commenced with a ceremonial lamp lighting, setting a thoughtful tone for the occasion. Among the distinguished guests were Rev. Dr. Dominic Savio, SJ; actor Avinash Tiwary; Rajnandini Pawar; Sourav Mukherjee; Dr. Saugata Banerjee; Alok Tibrewal; Major General V. N. Chaturvedi (Retd.); Dr. Jayeeta Ganguly; and Imran Zaki, each representing different facets of the education, cultural, and social ecosystem that continues to shape the region.

Setting the tone for an evening of celebration and inspiration, dignitaries came together for the traditional lamp-lighting ceremony. Chaturvedi (Retd) and Imran Zaki

What made the initiative stand out was its broader perspective on what education means today. Schools are no longer measured by academic performance alone. They are increasingly expected to nurture creativity, emotional intelligence, leadership, collaboration, and resilience. The Times School Ranking East 2026 Powered by Femina reflected this shift by recognising institutions that are building balanced, student-centric learning environments where education extends well beyond the classroom.

The rankings featured a diverse range of educational institutions, including day schools, residential schools, preschools, and leading school chains, bringing them together on a single platform. This comprehensive approach offered valuable insights into the education landscape of Eastern India while highlighting institutions that are setting new benchmarks in teaching, infrastructure, inclusion, and holistic student development.

Rev Dr Dominic Savio, S.J., Principal of St. Xavier's College (Autonomous), Kolkata and Secretary of JHEASA, delivers the opening note, setting the context for an evening dedicated to recognising excellence and meaningful contributions
